

I am opposed to relaxing the regulations on broadcast ownership. Our rights to freedom of expression and information are threatened by this. The most dangerous monopoly possible is that of the broadcasted word and that is exactly what is being allowed to happen.